Title

Online Divorce Certificate for Overseas Client (Spain) – NADRA Registration through Special Power of Attorney

Background

A female client residing in Canada contacted our legal team seeking Khula/Divorce (dissolution of marriage) as she was living separately from her husband.

During detailed consultation, it was revealed that both parties were already separated and maintained occasional contact only due to their children. Based on these facts, our legal experts identified that the case could be resolved through Mutual Divorce, avoiding lengthy court proceedings.

Problem

- Client based in Canada, unable to travel to Pakistan
- Initially wanted to file Khula case

- Parties already living separately
 - Occasional contact due to children
 - Needed fast and smooth legal solution
 - Wanted to avoid court proceedings

Legal Action Taken

After detailed discussion, we advised the client that her case could be efficiently resolved through Mutual Divorce (by consent) instead of Khula.

 This approach allowed:

- Direct processing through Union Council
- No need to file a court case
- Time-saving and cost-effective solution

Client agreed to proceed with mutual consent.

We then arranged:

- Appointment of Special Power of Attorney (SPA) on behalf of the client
- Legal representation in Pakistan

Our legal team handled:

- Preparation and submission of divorce file
- Coordination with Union Council
- Completion of legal formalities
- Processing of NADRA Divorce Registration Certificate

 Fee structure was managed in portions (step-by-step) for client convenience and transparency

Client Review / Testimonial

“I couldn’t travel from Canada, but they handled my entire divorce case through a special power of attorney and saved my time & court proceedings as well. I received my official divorce certificate on time. Truly reliable and professional.”

Legal Insight

In cases where both parties are already separated and agree on divorce, Mutual Divorce through Union Council is a faster and more efficient option compared to Khula.

 This method avoids court proceedings and allows direct issuance of a NADRA Divorce Certificate after completion of legal requirements.

 Overseas clients can complete the entire process through a Special Power of Attorney without appearing in Pakistan.
