Legal Insight

A woman in Pakistan can seek Khula or dissolution of marriage under the following legal provisions:

Section 8 of the Muslim Family Laws Ordinance, 1961

Allows dissolution of marriage through Khula where reconciliation is not possible.

Section 10(4) of the West Pakistan Family Courts Act, 1964

Empowers the Family Court to pass a decree of Khula if reconciliation efforts fail.

Dissolution of Muslim Marriages Act, 1939 (Section 2)

Provides additional grounds for dissolution of marriage, including:

- Cruelty
- Non-maintenance
- Desertion
- Failure of marital obligations

 In practice, courts grant Khula when the wife states that she cannot live with her husband within the limits prescribed by Islam, even without proving fault.

 Remote legal representation through a Special Power of Attorney allows clients to complete the entire process without appearing in court.
