

Online Khula Case Study (Overseas Pakistani – United Kingdom)

Title

Husband Gives Verbal Divorce Without Documentation – Khula Decree, NADRA Divorce Certificate & MOFA Attestation Delivered to UK via DHL

Background

A Pakistani female client residing in the United Kingdom contacted our legal team after her husband had pronounced verbal divorce (talaq) three times. However, no written documentation or legal process was completed, leaving her marital status unclear for legal and immigration purposes.

Problem

- Husband had given verbal divorce but refused to provide written confirmation
- No official record of divorce existed in Pakistan
- The client was residing abroad and unable to appear in court
- She required a legally recognized divorce status along with attested documents for use in the United Kingdom

Legal Action Taken

To regularize her legal status, our legal team initiated a Suit for Dissolution of Marriage on the Basis of Khula under Section 10(4) of the West Pakistan Family Courts Act, 1964, read with Section 8 of the Muslim Family Laws Ordinance, 1961, through a Special Power of Attorney (SPA) executed by the client in the United Kingdom.

● Steps We Handled:

- Drafting and attestation of Special Power of Attorney
- Filing the case in Family Court Lahore
- Full legal representation on behalf of the client
- Arrangement of video call statement (bayan) with court permission
- Generation of Court-Attested Khula Decree

DECREE SHEET.

 CAUSES*

- Submission of file in NADRA Union Council for NADRA Divorce Registration Certificate
- Generation of NADRA Divorce Certificate
- Attestation from Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA), Pakistan, on client request
- Regular updates and consultation with the client before and after every step

! Challenges Faced

- No written proof of divorce from husband
- Husband's non-cooperative behavior
- Overseas documentation and attestation requirements
- Coordination of remote court appearance via video link

✓ Result

- Khula decree granted by Family Court Lahore
- Marriage legally dissolved and status regularized
- NADRA Divorce Registration Certificate successfully issued

"Brother, I have received the documents. Amazing service, thank you for your efforts. I'm at the airport going for Umrah now and will be sure to make Dua for you and the Team."

Legal Insight

In cases where verbal divorce is given but not legally documented, it is essential to regularize marital status through proper legal channels.

Filing Khula ensures:

- A valid court decree
- Legal recognition of divorce
- Eligibility for official documentation

Additionally, MOFA attestation is required for international use of Pakistani legal documents, especially in countries like the United Kingdom.
